WERT IS UNINJURED

Services to Be Held at Home of Parents

WERT—(Special)—Cliff Conley, 23, formerly of Lima, was killed Sunday when he fell 100 feet while attempting a parachute drop. Worth, of this city, who had Conley in the balloon, was able to reach safety.

had leaped from the balloon at a height of 1,000 feet and his parachute opened as it had hundreds of feet previously.

Worth, in the life belt which he had attached to the parachute, was seen heading toward the ground. He was dead when he reached the ground, as he was seen by onlookers. He was coming in a Kalamazoo, one of the feature attractions of the fair.

Worth, who has been away from Lima for about eight years, was seen at Jackson, Mich., and has been seen in making balloon ascents in that city.

Man Jailed For Taking Own Child

ST. PAUL, Minn.—(By United Press)—Gaining possession of his own child by breaking down a door with an axe, cost L. B. Taylor his liberty today. Seven years ago, under a court order at Cleveland, Ohio, Taylor and his wife gave Taylor's parents custody of the child. A month ago, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor took the child back. Yesterday Taylor's mother and his sister found the child playing in a yard and took her home with them. Young Taylor suspected them of the kidnapping, went to his mother's home and broke down the door with an axe, returning the child to his own home. His mother, suffering from fright and shock, was taken to a hospital. Taylor was taken to jail.

LIMA MAN DIES IN LORAIN

F. A. Seeley Commits Suicide in Hotel Room

HEALTH HAS BEEN POOR

Business Condition Also Brought On, Family Believes

Dependent upon the fact that his health was bad and business was poor, Frederick A. Seeley, 64, veteran traveling salesman, of 608 Brice-av., ended his life Sunday afternoon in the Hotel Lorain, at Lorain, by hanging. Hotel attendants found the lifeless body late Sunday evening, hanging in the room which Seeley had occupied Saturday night. He had been dead for several hours. Letters addressed to his wife and son were found in the room. These explained, according to Coroner Miles Perry, that his act was prompted by the fact that business this summer had been dull and his firm had threatened to let him go.

Seeley was known to have been in failing health for four years, but because of his family was unable to give up his job. Coroner Perry's verdict was suicide.

He leaves his wife, Louise Seeley, 608 Brice-av., and two sons, Walter, a student at Purdue university, Lafayette, Ind., now at home, and Raymond, of Detroit. A sister, Mrs. E. H. Wennmann, of New York City, also survives.

Seeley came to Lima 15 years ago from New York City, at which time he was traveling for the New York Fire Extinguisher Corp. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, the United Commercial Travelers' Association and the Illinois Men's Health Association.

Funeral arrangements will be in charge of Rev. W. L. Steeves of the First Baptist church, and will not be made until relatives from other cities have reached here. The body was brought to Lima Monday afternoon in the J. W. Bowersock ambulance.

GIRL IS KIDNAPED

Companion Robbed by Bandits at Cleveland

CLEVELAND—(By United Press)—Police scoured the west side today for three men who kidnaped Miss Theima Peepers, 18, after holding up her companion, William Westley, 21, and robbing him of $25.

The girl was found early today after she had been captive several hours. Masked, the three men held up the couple as they were returning to Cleveland from an automobile ride. They robbed Westley and took the girl captive.

Miss Peepers told police that her abductors had carried her thru a wood at the roadside. Then the bandit broke up and one of the men emerged from a cemetery, with Miss Peepers, leaving her on a street corner with the warning that she must not give an alarm until he had disappeared.

Tragedies in State Over Week-end Summarized

SIX DIE IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Other Deaths Due to Drownings, Murders, Suicides

COLUMBUS—(By Associated Press)—Automobile accidents, drownings, murders, suicides and other accidents took a week-end death toll in Ohio of eleven lives. Five persons were killed eight miles west of Hamilton when a Cincinnati, Indiana and Western train struck an automobile. The dead are:

Roy Fawnes, 20; Mrs. Roy Fawnes, who died in a Hamilton hospital of burns received when the gasoline tank of the car exploded; Deslie Fawnes, 15; J. E. Johnson, 35, and Dolores Johnson, 11. Mr. and Mrs. Fawnes had been married only two days and were enroute from Rango Mills, Ky., to their new castle, Ind.

Edwin Vetter, 50, was found dead along a road east of Wooster with his skull fractured. Police believe robbery was the motive for the murder. Farrell Johnson, 39, died at Dayton from what police said was the effects of drinking poison liquor.

Tony Sangueloles, 7, was killed by an automobile in Cleveland. David Frager, 24, was killed in Columbus when his head was caught in an elevator shaft while he was descending in an elevator.

F. A. Seeley, 60, traveling salesman, of Lima was found dead in his Lorain hotel room, a suicide. William Boehr, 16, of Dayton, was drowned in the Little Miami river near Milare Park, Greene county.

Automobile accidents in many parts of the state caused injuries to persons which proved to be of only minor nature. 5 DIE IN WRECK

HAMILTON—(By Associated Press)—The bodies of five persons were in a local morgue today the grim reminder of a railroad crossing accident here yesterday which snuffed out their lives when a Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western passenger train struck the automobile in which they were riding. The bodies were awaiting final disposition by relatives who were expected here today to complete arrangements for their funeral.

The dead are: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fawnes, 20 years old, Lelia Fawnes, 15, sister; J. F. Johnson, 35, and his daughter, Dolores, 11. The accident happened as the party was enroute to New Castle, Ind., where the Fawnes were to make their home. They had been married last Friday in Hillsboro, Ky., and had left Saturday afternoon for the Indiana town where Fawnes lived with his parents.

The crossing is on a knoll and according to the engineer of the train, the automobile was speeding to beat the train when the engine struck it. Almost instantly, according to witnesses, the gasoline tank exploded and set fire to the wreckage.

The train crew and motorists attracted to the scene by the deafening impact, made attempts to extricate the bodies from the machine. They pulled Mrs. Fawnes from the wreckage when she showed signs of life but the body was so severely burned that it was only a question of how long she would have to suffer untold agony because of the burns.

The other members of the party all were dead when picked up. A OF FAMILY KILLED COVINGTON, Ky.—(By Associated Press)—The lowering today of the coffins containing three members of the family of George W. Johnson of Covington when their automobile stalled on a railroad track at Corinth, Ky., as they emerged from a cemetery, will write the final chapter into the tragic outcome of a mourning party.

They had buried Johnson's step mother at Mason, Ky., Saturday and Johnson, his wife and their two sons and daughter were returning to their home when a freight train bore down on the automobile and smashed it to pieces.

The three will be laid to rest in one grave. There to watch will be the family.

EIGHT DROWN WHEN DANCE FLOOR COLLAPSES

Eight persons were drowned at Buckeye Lake when part of a dance pavilion built over the water collapsed. The accident was caused by a beam under the floor breaking when the floor was crowded. Thirty persons fell thru the floor into the water. In the picture men in a boat may be seen hunting for bodies.

BIG 14 AGREE ON DAWES PLAN

Reparations Dispute Settled at London Parley

LONDON—(By Associated Press)—The allied and German experts attached to the international reparations conference have reached a full agreement on the Dawes program. It is announced. They remained in session until 3 o'clock this morning to arrive at an understanding on reparations payment in kind on which the Germans held out until the results of Premier Herriot's Paris mission became known.

The French premier's return with his cabinet's approval of his Ruhr evacuation policy in his pocket put new life and hope into the negotiations. This morning the "big fourteen"—the allied and German delegation leaders—met for an hour and a half at Number 10 Downing-st. and heard Herriot's report of his Paris trip. They then briefly considered the one remaining problem within the purview of the conference proper—that of the railroad crossing accident here yesterday which snuffed out their lives when a Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western passenger train struck the automobile in which they were riding. The bodies were awaiting final disposition by relatives who were expected here today to complete arrangements for their funeral.

TREASURER'S AFFAIRS ARE PROBED FOLLOWING SHOOTING OF HIMSELF

PUTNAM, Conn.—Inquiry into trust funds and estates which have been handled by State Treasurer G. Harold Gilpatrick as trustee under appointment of the probate court was continued today and Federal bank examiners resumed investigation of the First National Bank of Putnam of which Gilpatrick is cashier. Gilpatrick, who shot himself at his home last Thursday remained in a critical condition at a hospital. Among the estates in Gilpatrick's care was that of the late Mary Gardner of Putnam who left $85,000. No accounting appears on record at the probate court.

Mrs. Gilpatrick, the daughter of a wealthy mill owner, was left a fortune by her father. Whether her estate has been involved in any of the state treasurer's financial operations is a matter of speculation. Gilpatrick's family and the bank officials have maintained silence on the subject of any possible shortage in Mr. Gilpatrick's accounts or any financial reasons which might have impelled his attempt on his life.

SHAVER CHOSEN CHAIRMAN

Elected by Democratic Committee—Davis Speaks

CLARKSBURG, W. Va.—(By United Press)—Clem L. Shaver, of West Virginia, was elected chairman of the Democratic national committee by acclamation at its meeting here today.

This was the only business of the committee at its morning session. It will meet again this afternoon to elect a secretary and treasurer and a vice-chairman who will be in charge of women's activities. Mrs. Emily Newell Blair is expected to be renominated to this post. Charles A. Greathouse, of Indiana, is expected to be selected secretary.

The post of treasurer has been offered to W. T. Kemper, of Kansas City, national committeeman of Missouri, but there is some doubt about his accepting the place. He will give his decision at the afternoon meeting.

WELCOMED BY DAVIS
CLARKSBURG, W. Va.—(By Associated Press)—John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate, personally welcomed to Clarksburg today the leaders of his party who have assembled for his formal notification tonight.

Appearing before the national committee to suggest the selection of Clem L. Shaver as its chairman, Davis urged the necessity for organization and declared that it was the duty of the committee and of himself to see that the country is fully informed "concerning those things that will influence their decision in November."

"I promise you to spare no effort to this end," he said. "I am equally sure that no effort will be lacking on your part and that the only contest which arises between us is as to which can do most in the common cause."

HUSBAND, WIFE ENDS LIVES

Tragic Deaths at Dayton Are Only Week Apart

DAYTON—(By Associated Press)—As a sequel to the tragedy of a week ago when his wife died from an overdose of drugs, Harry Kilmer, 34, was dead today having ended his life by hanging himself in the Dayton state hospital.

Kilmer's body, suspended from a towel rack in a wash room, was found Sunday by an attendant. The patient had tied one end of a roller towel about his neck and the other to the rack. Coroner Kimmel who examined the body, said that Kilmer had been dead about an hour.

Mildred Kilmer, 27, the dead man's wife, died in a hospital last Tuesday night after she was mysteriously conveyed to the institution the night before. Her death, according to Coroner Kimmel, was caused by an overdose of drugs.

Kilmer was kept in a strong ward for a day and a night and then was taken to the state hospital. Coroner Kimmel dropped his investigation of the woman's death after he determined that Kilmer was really her husband and substantiated reports that both were drug addicts.

NOMINEE KILLED BY BULL

Candidate for Governor of South Dakota Gored

SIOUX FALLS, S. D.—(By Associated Press)—Andrew S. Anderson, Democratic nominee for governor of South Dakota, was gored to death early today at his farm near Beresford, S. D., thirty miles south of Sioux Falls.

Meagre telephone reports indicated that Anderson had gone to the pasture to take care of his stock when one of the bulls in his herd became enraged and attacked him.

Anderson entered politics in 1920, when he won a seat in the legislature from Clay-co. In 1912 he was re-elected and again in 1914, defeating the latter year Carl Gunderson, now Republican gubernatorial nominee.

He declined the Democratic nomination for governor in 1922, but accepted this year.

HOT WEATHER FAILS TO STOP COOLIDGE'S WALKS

WASHINGTON—The intense heat which has prevailed here for the last two weeks has interfered little with the program of President Coolidge who has followed through his practice of taking two walks daily for exercise. The president has been practically the only recreation indulged in by the president aside from his trips on the Mayflower, the presidential yacht. It is his custom to walk about the city in the early morning anywhere from 30 minutes to two hours, and again in the evening for a shorter time. Mr. Coolidge follows no regular path on these jaunts. He is described by friends as a brisk walker but not hurried.

BRIDGE JOB IS AWARDED

Roberts Supply Co. Gets Elida Structure Contract

WORK TO START AT ONCE

Last Gap in Lima-Delphos Highway to Be Paved

State Highway Director L. A. Boulay announced from Columbus Monday that the contract for constructing the Elida bridge and drainage structure and paving with reinforced concrete a section of the Harding highway, has been awarded to the Roberts Supply Co. of Lima.

Roberts was second lowest bidder with a price of $56,822.59 for the job. Work on the bridge will start immediately according to Charles Ash, resident engineer for the state highway department.

Award of the contract closes the last gap in the Harding highway between Lima and Delphos. Roberts has practically completed building bridges at High-st. and Market-st., commenced last fall and will move the outfit to Elida at once.

FINE STRUCTURE
The new bridge will be one of the finest country bridges in Allen-co. It will be built of reinforced concrete with three arches to take care of the flow of the river. It will span the Ottawa river about three quarters of a mile west of Elida, and will replace an old steel structure that has been condemned by the county commissioners and the state highway department.

Because the new bridge will be located up stream from the old structure, it may be possible to use the present structure until the new one is finished. This will make unnecessary a long detour, Ash pointed out.

Contracts were also let by the state Monday to Newell & Smith, of Defiance, for paving with concrete a section of the Barborton-Greenwich-rd in Huron-co. at a price of $23,337.03. James W. Carey, of Ada, received a contract for building a section of waterbound macadam on the Zanesville-Cincinnati-rd, in Newton-tp. Muskingum-co. His bid was $70,865.85.

TWO MURDERED

Bodies of Detroit Brother, Sister Found in Home

DETROIT—(By Associated Press)—The bruined and mutilated bodies of Casper Yurgens, 60, and his sister Theresa, also 60, were found this morning in their grocery store here. Yurgens' body was found behind the counter of the store and that of his sister on a couch in the living quarters adjoining the store. The heads of both had been crushed, apparently with a baseball bat, found hidden under a stairway.

All the rooms in the living quarters had been ransacked and their contents strewn over the floor. Yurgens and his sister had lived alone at the rear of the store for several years. None of the beds in the living quarters showed evidence of having been occupied. Indicating, according to the police, that the brother and sister were slain last night.

SON BORN
Mr. and Mrs. Don Fritz, Ram-say, Mich., announce the birth of a son James. He weighs eight pounds. Mrs. Fritz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Metzger, of Lima.

Several X-Ray pictures of Leopold and Loeb were submitted as exhibits, and then Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, began cross-examination.

"What other criminals in murder cases did you ever examine?" was the first question. The defense objected by a slight argument, "A great many," Dr. Hulbert replied, "eight since the world war."

TESTS DEMANDED
Crowe insisted that the doctor enumerate the tests he applied to all other criminals.

"Did you ever make examinations as elaborate in any other case as you have in this one?" Mr. Crowe asked.

"No sir."

"I have never heard it defined," said Dr. Hulbert, when asked for a definition of a "normal person."

Early he began to fence with Crowe, assisted by objections from the defense.

SPEEDY CLOSURE
In another week Nathan Leopold and Loeb may know the penalty the law will demand from them.

A speedy close of the trial, now on the seventeenth day, is indicated by the announcement of defense counsel that no more witnesses will be called on behalf of the confessed slayers and that after Foreman Leopold and Allen Loeb, brothers of the defendants, who will be called today, come into the courtroom the defense will rest its case.

State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe still has a number of witnesses and also will call several alienists. Among them will be

APPEALS BOARD HEARS CASES

Treasury Department Creates Complaint Bureau

ELIMINATE EXTRA WORK

Thirty Days Notice Given in Filing All Protests

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press)—With the organization of the new Board of Tax Appeals, which takes outside of the treasury the final decision in disputed tax cases, the Bureau of Internal Revenue has set up a new code of regulations governing procedure in the handling of cases before appeal is taken to the high tax court. This procedure includes the creation of a new committee on review within the office of the Solicitor of Internal Revenue, a body largely supplanting the old unofficial committees on appeal that functioned prior to enactment of the last revenue law. The regulations provide that in every case where a deficiency appears to exist the Internal Revenue Bureau will give the taxpayer notice of 30 days so that, if he desires, he may file a protest, request a hearing and offer evidence against the proposed increase. The letter of protest should contain the name and address of the taxpayer, name and place of business of the corporation and the state in which it was incorporated, a designation of the year or years involved, a statement of the amount of tax in dispute, an itemized schedule of the bureau's findings to which exception has been taken and a summary of statements of the grounds upon which the taxpayer relies in connection with each exception to the findings. If the taxpayer presents no protest within 30 days of his notification, final determination will be made and the taxpayer notified. The taxpayer then, under the new law, may appeal the case to the Board of Tax Appeals, take it out of the hands of the Bureau of Internal Revenue entirely and go into the open with his argument and evidence, for the tax law provides that all hearings before the Tax Appeals Board must be public and a written record of the proceedings made if the amount involved exceeds $10,000. 60 DAY APPEAL Appeal to the Board of Appeals must be made within 60 days after the taxpayer has received notice from the Internal Revenue Commission that a final determination has been made. Accompanying the notice of a final determination will be a form of agreement consenting to the assessments and if the taxpayer decides to drop his contention, he may execute the form and return it to the bureau, thus closing the case. In working out this arrangement, it is the hope of the treasury to eliminate a vast amount of work that otherwise would go to the Tax Board and jam its docket. In other words, the treasury, Acting Secretary Winston said, hopes to reach a settlement with every taxpayer possible and serve the double purpose of getting such revenue as is due into the treasury at once and reducing the number of cases to be heard before the Board of Tax Appeals. Before entering the treasury, Winston was associated with a Chicago law firm and his experience there, he said, convinced him that the average taxpayer was concerned more with a timely and final settlement of a tax claim than with the amounts, except of course where the difference are great. In some quarters, the belief was expressed that as a result of the establishment of the new Board of Appeals outside of the treasury, officials of the bureau would adopt a more conciliatory attitude in dealing with taxpayers for the independent Board of Appeals may override the bureau at any time it finds ground to do so. Winston agreed that with the board outside of the treasury, more rapid disposition of the cases within the Bureau of Internal Revenue is likely to take place in the future. RURAL SCHOOLS HANDICAPPED

Child Labor on Farms Stops Progress of Education

NEW YORK—(By United Press)—The rural school is the chief defect in the educational system of this country, according to educators from many states who have been participating in a series of lectures and conferences at the summer session of Columbia University. Lack of properly trained teachers, relatively large illiteracy in the population, child labor and limited high school opportunity were stressed as handicaps of country life. Of the 300,000 rural and village teachers in the United States, only 150,000 have completed a high school course, it was brought out by Prof. Mabel Carney of Teachers' college. County superintendents, Prof. Carney pointed out, are still selected by popular vote in twenty-five states. Prof. Carney, after an exhaustive study, concludes that rural school attendance is greatly influenced by child labor on the farms. The total number of child workers from ten to fifteen years of age in the United States is 1,060,838, of whom 742,600 or 71.9 percent are engaged in agricultural pursuits. "The number of Americans living on farms is 31,600,000, or about one-third of our total population," continued Prof. Carney. "The population living in villages of less than 2,500 is 9,000,000. Of a negro population of 11,000,000 more than 75 percent can live on the land. "The expenditure per capita for city school children is about $80. The expenditure per capita for rural school children is about $44. "City children enjoy longer school terms. The average urban period is 234 days; the average rural school period is 137 days. Illiteracy is greater in rural territory than in urban centers. The rural percentage is 7.7 and the urban percentage 4.4. Despite obvious handicaps, rural education, it was said, is making progress, particularly since the report of the country life commission appointed by President Roosevelt. The country or rural school superintendent was characterized as one of the most useful agencies of the American state. Dr. Ernest Burnham of the Kalamazoo, Mich., normal school said that there was a lack of appreciation of teachers by farmers. The average annual salary of rural teachers, he said, was only $729.

ITALIAN SOLDIER DRAFTED INTO ARMY LIFE ROME — During the war the youngest soldier in the Italian army was Francesco Lavrenco who, driven from his home by the Austrians when the Italians crossed the border in 1915, became a volunteer in the Italian regiment of Guidice at 13 years of age, and had risen to be a sergeant major when he was fifteen. Lavrenco took part in over a dozen big actions and was awarded the silver medal for valor for his bravery on the Piave. All this, however, has ended the young hero's military career as he has been called under arms since he was 18 years of age. He has done his ordinary military service. The boy veteran is now stationed at Ferrara, and a public subscription has been opened to give him a gold medal in memory of his unique experience. Mr. and Mrs. John R. Post of 10 E. "Duplex" House for $11,000

CURTIS SERVICE BUREAU OF CLINTON, IA., DESIGNED THIS SQUARE TYPE DUPLEX.

In the larger towns and cities, where lot values are one of the main considerations in the cost of building, the duplex or two-family house needs a real need. Unlike the flat or apartment, it preserves the "feel" and appearance of home and yet makes possible many a "home of your own" that could not be built if the whole cost of building and maintenance had to be borne by one family. Some builders prefer the two-family type—where the suites are side by side, each having rooms on both floors—while others prefer the duplex—where one apartment is above the other—as in the desirable plan featured here. RECTANGULAR TYPE This building is strictly rectangular, even the porches being included in the rectangle and under the plain hip roof. The small porch at the right may be used as an entrance porch for both apartments, and access may be had to the first floor living room from the living porch at the left, also. Each suite consists of living room, dining room, kitchen, two bedrooms, pantry and bath, with clothes closets, linen closet and coat closet. The second floor has a sun-porch rather than an open living porch, and an inviting alcove above the small entrance porch, otherwise the room arrangement is identical with the first floor. Among the built-in conveniences incorporated in the plans are a combination sideboard and kitchen-dresser between the dining room and kitchen, with sliding doors for passing dishes from one room to the other.

Wolverine Furnaces

Here's a Good Thing to Look Into

Great care and consideration should be used in selecting your heating plant. Compare the Wolverine super-heater with the so called top radiator type of furnaces—you will see the extra large amount of radiating surface—the long fire travel on the Wolverine which means you are extracting all the possible heat units from the fuel burned. It means you are not using an extra large quantity of fuel. It means there will be no smoke or dust from your furnace, but enough pure warm moist air in each room to make your home comfortable. It means your furnace will be installed by factory trained mechanics who do nothing else the year around but install Wolverines—they are men that take pride in their work and put the pipes up as they should be. It means you will get more than you expected—and that we will please you with every detail of your installation. A telephone call or a post card will bring an expert heating engineer to your place—he will lay out a heating system for you—placing you under no obligation what so ever. A factory guarantee and agreement with each job means the Marshall Furnace Company takes all responsibility for the heating of your home.

Man Jailed For Taking Own Child

ST. PAUL, Minn.—(By United Press)—Gaining possession of his own child by breaking down a door with an axe, cost L. E. Taylor his liberty today.

Seven years ago, under a court order at Cleveland, Ohio, Taylor and his wife gave Taylor's parents custody of the child.

A month ago, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor took the child back. Yesterday Taylor's mother and his sister found the child playing in a yard and took her home with them. Young Taylor suspected them of the kidnapping, went to his mother's home and broke down the door with an axe, re- turning the child to his own home. His mother, suffering from fright and shock, was taken to a hospital. Taylor was taken to jail.

LIMA MAN DIES IN LORAIN

F. A. Seeley Commits Suicide
in Hotel Room

HEALTH HAS BEEN POOR

Business Condition Also Caused Act, Family Believes

Despondent over the fact that his health was bad and business was poor, Frederick A. Seeley, 64, veteran traveling salesman, of 608 Brice-av., ended his life Sunday afternoon in the Hotel Lorain, at Lorain, by hanging.

Hotel attendants found the lifeless body late Sunday evening, hanging in the room which Seeley had occupied Saturday night. He had been dead for several hours.

Letters addressed to his wife and son were found in the room. These explained, according to Coroner Miles Perry, that his act was prompted by the fact that business this summer had been dull and his firm had threatened to let him go.

HEALTH FAILS

Seeley was known to have been in failing health for four years, but because of his family was unable to give up his job. Coroner Perry's verdict was suicide.

He leaves his wife, Louise Seeley, 608 Brice-av., and two sons, Walter, a student at Purdue university, Lafayette, Ind., now at home, and Raymond, of Detroit. A sister, Mrs. E. H. Wennahn, of New York City, also survives.

Seeley came to Lima 15 years ago from New York City, and since that time has traveled for the New York Fire Extinguisher Corp. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, the United Commercial Travelers' Association and the Illinois Men's Health Association.

Funeral arrangements will be in charge of Rev. W. L. Steeves of the First Baptist church, and will not be made until relatives from other cities have reached here. The body was brought to Lima Monday afternoon in the J. W. Bowersock ambulance.

GIRL IS KIDNAPED

Companion Robbed by Bandits
at Cleveland

CLEVELAND — (By United Press)—Police scoured the west side today for three men who kidnaped Miss Thelma Peepers, 18, after holding up her companion, William Westley, 21, and robbing him of $25.

The girl was found early today after she had been captive several hours.

Masked, the three men held up the couple as they were returning to Cleveland from an automobile ride. They robbed Westley and took the girl captive.

Miss Peepers told police that her abductors had carried her thru a wood at the roadside. Then the bandit trio broke up and one of the members walked into town with Miss Peepers, leaving her on a street corner with the warning that she must not give an alarm until he had disappeared.

SIX DIE IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Other Deaths Due to Drownings, Murders, Suicides

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press)—Automobile accidents, drownings, murders, suicides and other accidents took a week-end death toll in Ohio of eleven lives.

Five persons were killed eight miles west of Hamilton when a Cincinnati, Indiana and Western train struck an automobile. The dead are:

Roy Fawnes, 30; Mrs. Roy Fawnes, who died in a Hamilton hospital of burns received when the gasoline tank of the car exploded; Beale Fawnes, 15; J. E. Johnson, 35, and Dolores Johnson, 11. Mr. and Mrs. Fawnes had been married only two days and were enroute from Ringo Mills, Ky., to their New Castle, Ind., home.

Edwin Vetter, 50, was found dead along a road east of Wooster with his skull fractured. Police believe robbery was the motive for the murder.

Farrell Johnson, 39, died at Dayton from what police said was the effects of drinking poison liquor.

Tony Sanguelotes, 7, was killed by an automobile in Cleveland.

David Frager, 24, was killed in Columbus when his head was caught in an elevator shaft while he was descending in an elevator.

F. A. Seeley, 60, traveling salesman, of Lima was found dead in his Lorain hotel room, a suicide.

William Boehrer, 16, of Dayton, was drowned in the Little Miami river near Hixkare Park, Greeno-

Automobile accidents in many parts of the state caused injuries to persons which proved to be of only minor nature.

5 DIE IN WRECK

HAMILTON — (By Associated Press)—The bodies of five persons were in a local morgue today the grim reminder of a railroad crossing accident here yesterday which snuffed out their lives when a Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western passenger train struck the automobile in which they were riding. The bodies were awaiting final disposition by relatives who were expected here today to complete arrangements for their funeral.

The dead are:

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fawnes, both 20 years old, Lelia Fawnes, 15, sister; J. F. Johnson, 35, and his daughter, Dolores, 11.

The accident happened as the party was enroute to New Castle, Ind., where the Fawnes were to make their home. They had been married last Friday in Hillsboro, Ky., and had left Saturday afternoon for the Indiana town where Fawnes lived with his parents.

The crossing is on a knoll and according to the engineer of the train, the automobile was speeding to beat the train when the engine struck it. Almost instantly, according to witnesses, the gasoline tank exploded and set fire to the wreckage.

The train crew and motorists attracted to the scene by the deafening impact, made attempts to extricate the bodies from the machine. They pulled Mrs. Fawnes from the wreckage when she showed signs of life but the body was so severely burned that it was only a question of how long she would have to suffer untold agonies because of the burns. The other members of the party all were dead when picked up.

5 OF FAMILY KILLED

COVINGTON, Ky. — (By Associated Press)—The lowering today of the coffin containing three members of the family of George W. Johnson of Covington who were killed late Saturday when their automobile stalled on a railroad track at Corinth, Ky., as they emerged from a cemetery, will write the final chapter into the tragic outcome of a mourning party.

They had buried Johnson's step-mother at Mason, Ky., Saturday and Johnson, his wife and two sons and daughter were returning to their home when a freight train bore down on the automobile and smashed it to pieces.

The three will be laid to rest in one grave. There to watch will

BIG 14 AGREE ON DAWES PLAN

Reparations Dispute Settled
at London Parley

LONDON — (By Associated Press)—The allied and German experts attached to the international reparations conference have reached a full agreement on the Dawes program, it is announced. They remained in session until 3 o'clock this morning to arrive at an understanding on reparations payment in kind on which the Germans held out until the results of Premier Herriot's Paris mission became known.

The French premier's return with his cabinet's approval of his Ruhr evacuation policy in his pocket put new life and hope into the negotiations.

This morning the "big fourteen"—the allied and German delegation leaders—met for an hour and a half at Number 10 Downing-street and heard Herriot's report of his Paris trip. They then briefly considered the one remaining problem within the purview of the conference proper—that of the allied railway men remaining on the German lines.

This issue is so closely connected with that of the evacuation of the Ruhr that both seem likely to be settled at the same time, altho the Ruhr issue will be kept outside the conference.

During the morning the allied delegates also met with the Germans who approved the conclusions of the second committee which had been studying the problem of the economic evacuation of the Ruhr.

Premier MacDonald accepted a suggestion made by M. Herriot that the allied delegates, sometime before the end of the conference, exchange views with the German delegates on the resumption of military control in Germany in order to give France assurance regarding her security.

M. Herriot declared that the decision taken in Paris at the cabinet meeting concerning evacuation of the Ruhr, had shown the peaceful spirit of France and had brought immediate results. He said the conference now was assured of success.

Benton Harbor, Mich.

CHICAGO—(By United Press)—The body of a young, beautiful and handsomely dressed young woman was found in the woods near Benton Harbor, Mich., early today, Sheriff George C. Bridge-man of Benton Harbor, notified Chicago police. The girl had been shot to death, the sheriff wired.

A bracelet engraved with the letter "C" is the only clue to her identification, Bridgeman stated. The body has been in the woods for some time, as decomposition has set in, the sheriff stated.

TREASURER'S AFFAIRS ARE PROBED FOLLOWING SHOOTING OF HIMSELF

PUTNAM, Conn.—Inquiry into trust funds and estates which have been handled by State Treasurer G. Harold Gilpatrick as trustee under appointment of the probate court was continued today and Federal bank examiners resumed investigation of the First National Bank of Putnam of which Gilpatrick is cashier. Gilpatrick who shot himself at his home last Thursday remained in a critical condition at a hospital.

Among the estates in Gilpatrick's care was that of the late Mary Gardner of Putnam who left $85,000. No accounting appears on record at the probate court.

Mrs. Gilpatrick, the daughter of a wealthy mill owner, was left a fortune by her father. Whether her estate has been involved in any of the state treasurer's financial operations is a matter of speculation. Gilpatrick's family and the bank officials have maintained silence on the subject of any possible shortage in Mr. Gilpatrick's accounts or any financial reasons which might have impelled his attempt on his life.

Appearing before the national committee to suggest the selection of Clem L. Shaver as its chairman, Davis urged the necessity for organization and declared that it was the duty of the committee and of himself to see that the country is fully informed "concerning those things that will influence their decision in November."

"I promise you to spare no effort to this end," he said. "I am equally sure that no effort will be lacking on your part and that the only contest which arises between us is as to which can do most in the common cause."

HUSBAND, WIFE ENDS LIVES

Tragic Deaths at Dayton Are Only Week Apart

DAYTON — (By Associated Press)—As a sequel to the tragedy of a week ago when his wife died from an overdose of drugs, Harry Kilmer, 34, was dead today having ended his life by hanging himself in the Dayton state hospital.

Kilmer's body, suspended from a towel rack in a wash room, was found Sunday by an attendant. The patient had tied one end of a roller towel about his neck and the other to the rack. Coroner Kimmel who examined the body, said that Kilmer had been dead about an hour.

Mildred Kilmer, 27, the dead man's wife, died in a hospital last Tuesday night after she was mysteriously conveyed to the institution the night before. Her death, according to Coroner Kimmel, was caused by an overdose of drugs.

Kilmer was kept in a strong ward for a day and a night and then was taken to the state hospital. Coroner Kimmel dropped his investigation of the woman's death after he determined that Kilmer was really her husband and substantial reports that both were drug addicts.

NOMINEE KILLED BY BULL

Candidate for Governor of South Dakota Gored

SIOUX FALLS, S. D.—(By Associated Press)—Andrew S. Anderson, Democratic nominee for governor of South Dakota, was gored to death early today at a farm near Beresford, S. D., thirty miles south of Sioux Falls.

Meagre telephone reports indicated that Anderson had gone to the pasture to take care of his stock when one of the bulls in his herd became enraged and attacked him.

Anderson entered politics in 1920, when he won a seat in the legislature from Clay-co. In 1912 he was re-elected and again in 1914, defeating the latter year Carl Gunderson, now Republican gubernatorial nominee.

He declined the Democratic nomination for governor in 1922, but accepted this year.

HOT WEATHER FAILS TO STOP COOLIDGE'S WALKS

WASHINGTON — The intense heat which has prevailed here for the last two weeks has interfered little with the program of President Coolidge who has followed through his practice of taking two walks daily for exercise. The has been practically the only recreation indulged in by the president aside from his trips on the Mayflower, the presidential yacht. It is his custom to walk about the city in the early morning any- where from 30 minutes to two hours, and again in the evening for a shorter time. Mr. Coolidge follows no regular path on these jaunts. He is described by friends as a brisk walker but not hurried.

BRIDGE JOB IS AWARDED

Roberts Supply Co. Gets Elida
Structure Contract

WORK TO START AT ONCE

Last Gap in Lima-Delphos
Highway to Be Paved

State Highways Director L. A. Boulay announced from Columbus Monday that the contract for constructing the Elida bridge and drainage structure, and paving with reinforced concrete a section of the Harding highway, has been awarded to the Roberts Supply Co. of Lima.

Roberts was second lowest bidder with a price of $58,822.59 for the job.

Work on the bridge will start immediately according to Charles Ash, resident engineer, for the state highway department.

Award of the contract closes the last gap in the Harding highway between Lima and Delphos. Roberts has practically completed building bridges at High-st. and Market-st., commenced last fall and will move the outfit to Elida at once.

FINE STRUCTURE

The new bridge will be one of the finest country bridges in Allen-co. It will be built of reinforced concrete with three arches to take care of the flow of the river. It will span the Ottawa river about three quarters of a mile west of Elida, and will replace an old steel structure that has been condemned by the county commissioners and the state highway department.

Because the new bridge will be located up stream from the old structure, it may be possible to use the present structure until the new one is finished. This will make unnecessary a long detour, Ash pointed out.

Contracts were also let by the state Monday to Newell & Smith, of Defiance, for paving with concrete a section of the Barborton-Greenwich rd. in Huron-co at a price of $23,337.03. James W. Carey, of Ada, received a contract for building a section of waterbound macadam on the Zanesville-Cincinnati rd. in New- town, Muskingum-co. His bid was $70,855.35.

DOCTOR'S TESTIMONY

Dr. Hubert testified under questioning by Walter Bachrach of the defense that on the day Bobby Franks was kidnapped and murdered, Nathan Leopold was "mentally diseased," that "due to his constitution and habit of life" because he was intellectually overdeveloped, his body not well balanced nor in healthy state, and his judgment immature. "I conclude he was mentally diseased," he testified.

"His emotions were so slight in relation to the ordinary things of life that in relation to judgment they permitted him to act in an abnormal way."

"The mental condition of Loeb on that date was a direct factor in that he was impelled by motives nourished in his subconscious mind. His judgment was childish and not subject to restraint."

"Could Loeb have committed homicide if not for his diseased mental condition?" asked Mr. Bachrach.

"He could not," was the reply.

Several X-Ray pictures of Loeb and Loeb were submitted as exhibits, and then Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, began cross-examination.

"What other criminals in murder cases did you ever examine?" was the first question. The defense objected by a slight argument. "A great many," Dr. Hubert replied, "eight since the world war."

TESTS DEMANDED

Crowe insisted that the doctor enumerate the tests he applied to all other criminals.

"Did you ever make examinations as elaborate in any other case as you have in this one?" Mr. Crowe asked.

"No sir."

"I have never heard it defined," said Dr. Hubert, when asked for a definition of a "normal person."

Early he began to fence with Crowe, assisted by objections from the defense.

SPEEDY CLOSE

In another week Nathan Leopold and Loeb may know the penalty the law will demand from them.

A speedy close of the trial, now on the seventeenth day, is indicated by the announcement of defense counsel that no more witnesses will be called on behalf of the confessed slayers and that after Foreman Leopold and Allen Loeb, brothers of the defendants, who will be called today, complete their testimony the defense will rest its case.

State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe still has a number of witnesses and also will call several alienists. Among them will

Bodies of Detroit Brother, Sister Found in Home

DETROIT — (By Associated Press)—The bruised and mutilated bodies of Casper Yurgens, 60, and his sister Theresa, about the same age, were found this morning in their grocery store here. Yurgens' body was found behind the counter of the store and that of his sister on a couch in the living quarters adjoining. The heads of both had been crushed, apparently with a baseball bat, found hidden under a stairway.

All the rooms in the living quarters had been ransacked and their contents strewn over the floor.

Yurgens and his sister had lived alone at the rear of the store for several years. None of the beds in the living quarters showed evidence of having been occupied, indicating, according to the police, that the brother and sister were slain last night.

Gland Theory in Leopold, Loeb Case Questioned

DEFENSE MAY REST TODAY

State Will Then Present Its Rebuttal Witnesses

CHICAGO. — (By Associated Press)—The state today attacked the theory of functional disorders of the endocrine glands set up Saturday by the defense in its plea for mitigation of punishment of Richard Loeb and Nathan F. Leopold Jr., for kidnapping and murdering Bobby Franks.

The idea of functional disorders of the endocrine glands, built up by direct testimony of Dr. H. S. Hubert of Chicago, fourth defense alienist, who used X-Ray pictures to illustrate what he termed various glandular disorders, noting the thyroid, pineal, pituitary and adrenals.

Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, upon cross-examination asked Dr. Hubert for information as to the function of the pineal gland and told it regulated the balance of the other endocrine glands, asked if it were not a fact that medical men as a group know practically nothing of the function of the pineal gland and some question it being a gland at all. He received an affirmative reply.

DEFENSE REARS END

Crowe sought to impeach the testimony of Dr. Hubert by bringing out that the most eminent pathologist had been "too busy" to make some of his numerous tests and had to rely on the words of others. The witness testified he never had in "many murder cases made such extensive tests as in the present one."

Crowe's diving into the endocrine gland theory was cut short by the noon recess. It was indicated that the defense would rest its case soon after the completion of the testimony of Dr. Hubert and that late this afternoon the state would begin presentation of its many rebuttal witnesses, including four alienists.

EARLY RETURNS PREDICTED

Efforts to Be Made to Get
Vote Tabulated Quickly

BALLOTING TO BE HEAVY

Predictions of Strength Are
Made by Leaders

Statewide results of the primary election in Ohio Tuesday are to be made known in rapid fire order, if the instructions of Thad H. Brown, secretary of state are carried out by election boards.

Secretary Brown, Monday issued orders from Columbus that all election boards serving in the primary must stay in continuous session until a complete unofficial report has been made of the vote in each precinct.

Instructions to this effect reached the Allen county board Monday and will be followed to the letter, Joseph M. Madigan, chairman, declared.

Madigan communicated Secretary Brown's mandate to the boards in each of the 115 precincts in the county. His orders were that no delays will be tolerated. Failure to carry out Brown's orders and those of the local board will be dealt with under the provisions of the new election law enacted by the last legislature, Madigan declared.

As soon as the polls are closed counting of the vote for state officers must start. The state and district vote must be counted before the vote for county officers and reported immediately.

"When 10 precincts are reported, their combined vote will be telephoned to Columbus. Arrangements for handling the returns at Columbus were completed Monday. It was announced when a battery of five telephone trunk lines were installed.

Polls in Allen county will open at 5:30 a. m. and close at 5:30 p. m. central standard time. In cities using daylight savings time the polls will open one hour later, eastern time.

Approximately 6,000 Democratic voters are expected to go to the polls Tuesday, Madigan said, and the Republican vote in the county is estimated at not less than 5,000 votes.

Two years ago with a bitter gubernatorial battle being waged in the Democratic camp and a hot county and district campaign, 5,470 Democrats in the county voted.

Less interest was manifested in the G. O. P. battle, and only 3,403 voters visited the polls.

MORE INTEREST
This year the Republican organization in the county are working tooth and nail to win a record vote for John L. Cable, for governor. They hope to get about 6 per cent of his total expected vote in the state in Allen county.

For this reason it is conservatively estimated that from 1,500 to 2,000 more Republicans will vote in the primary than was the case two years ago.

Rival gubernatorial candidates, are expected to gather from 1,000 to 1,500 votes in the county. Cable running unopposed for Congress at the primary in 1922, received 10,072 votes in the Fourth district. His vote in the district this year, may exceed 12,000, while from 4,000 to 5,000 votes are conceded to other G. O. P. runners.

Ohio's Republican primary vote in 1922 was 464,539. This year, polls are predicted more than a half million votes will be cast.

Half Monday will keep hundreds of farmers out of the field Tuesday, and result in a normal rural vote.

The condition will help some candidates' chances and spell disaster for others. The usual evening hour wavering and shifts from one candidate to another, were in evidence Monday, among the voting element that always flock to the indicated winner, and then flop back just as quick.

6 FACE NOOSE IN MURDER

Two Bandits Killed; Four Are Fugitives from Justice

MONTREAL, Canada — (By Associated Press) — Six men face the gallows and four are fugitives from justice, as a result of one of a dozen or more bank robberies "overlooking a bet" The careless one was Harry Stone, who was shot and killed while participating in the holdup and robbery of the Hochelaga Bank payroll car here April 1. Henri "Leclercq, chauffeur of the car, was killed also in an exchange of rifle and revolver fire in which more than 40 shots were fired.

Stone had in his pockets cards with a Bridgeport, Conn. telephone number. Police shadowed the house in Bridgeport where the telephone instrument bearing that number was installed. Adamo Parillo was seen entering the house. The police had nothing on him at the time but it is said he was informed that one of the local bandits had "peached" on him and that Adamo "fell for it" and immediately explained the robbery of the Hochelaga Bank and the death of two men — one of them a crook.

GANG CAPTURED
Within a very short time after the robbery Louis Morel, former local police detective and all-around athlete; Tony Frank, a king of the underworld owner of houses of ill-repute and "bait-fish"; Giuseppe Santini, Frank Gambino, Leo Davis, Mike Valantine and Clio Negro were behind bars and warrants were out for Sylvain Aiena, Antonio Carreira, Morris Lesser and Sam Behan. Behan is reported to be in Sing Sing prison at present, but was all-god to have been one of the original conspirators in the local robbery which was conceived more than six months ago and rehearsed diligently for weeks.

Of the seven arrested men, all but Negrol are under sentence to hang on Oct. 24. Negrol secured immunity by turning "king's evidence." A remarkably brilliant array of legal talent was mustered for the bandits. It took 12 men just 11 minutes to render a verdict of murder in the first degree.

All of the men sentenced to death walked with the exception of Morel. Morel of physical perfection, when asked if he had anything to say, stood straight as an arrow and admitted his guilt. He recited the section of the criminal code under which those conspiring in any crime that leads to murder—whether actively participating or not—are guilty of murder and blamed "nobody but myself." He then made a spirited plea for the life of young Davis who, he said, was innocent. Parillo, recently extradited from Connecticut, will be tried in September.

One hundred thousand of the $242,000 taken from the car is still to be accounted for, and it is believed that the condemned men and the fugitive have this money.

DOCTOR'S STORY ASSAILED

Dr. William C. Krohn, who interviewed the slayers immediately after their confession, and Dr. Harold D. Singer.

Dr. Krohn is scheduled to be the first rebuttal witness called by the state's attorney. He is expected to testify that Leopold and Loeb are sane, that they are free from any mitigating psychoses.

A report by Dr. James Whitely Hall, neuro-psychiatrist for the defense, made public yesterday, describes the slayers as "psychopathic inferiors."

The report is thought to be an answer to Clarence S. Darrow's defense, built on teddy bears, baby phonies, a loosened—but not lost—responsibility.

In Dr. Hall declared that in a few years if the boys live, they will become completely irresponsible.

Dr. Hubert said Leopold's intolerance to sugar indicated the pituitary gland does not function normally. He said that none of the tests of Leopold and Loeb were made by him alone, nor by one man. Crowe was so insistent that Dr. Hubert name names that Judge Crohn's going wrong proved the prosecutor for arguing that Dr. Hubert grew red-faced and insisted he could not detail the names of all assistants, although the tests were made under his personal supervision.

If these boys wanted to cheat you on these tests could they have done so," asked Crowe.

"No, I am brighter than they are," replied Dr. Hubert.

"Do you mean intellectually or morally?" asked Crowe.

"Both," replied the specialist. Leopold and Loeb grinned.

"Is a matter of fact you relied on others whose names you do not know to tell the results of these tests?" asked Crowe.

The witness said he had supervised the tests.

Crowe tried to bring out that the placing of a finger on a wet X-ray plate might indicate a condition not present in the individual photographed.

PRINCE TO VISIT WHITE HOUSE

Strictly Private Luncheon to be Held for Wales

ONE OF HIGHEST HONORS

Heir to British Throne Will
Reach U. S. Aug. 30

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — One of the highest compliments in diplomatic usage—a strictly private luncheon with the executive family—is planned for the Prince of Wales upon his arrival in the United States, for the international polo matches next month at Meadowbrook, says the Washington Post today, adding that it understands the royal visitor will reach New York Aug. 30, on the Berengaria.

The prince's call at the White House was decided upon, the Post relates, after King George had vetoed a proposal that he come to the United States in cognate as Lord Renfrew. The king held that international courtesy required use of the prince's title on a visit to the United States. Besides, it might be a pleasure trip and this necessitated arrangements for him to pay his respects formally to the president.

The privacy of the luncheon, one of a few functions of its kind in American history, is attributed not only to the mourning of the executive family for alvin Coolidge Jr., but to a desire to retain similar courtesies extended by the king and queen recently to Secretary and Mrs. Hughes and to Secretary Mellon and his daughter. Afterwards, says the Post, members of the cabinet and their wives may be invited to the White House to welcome the prince informally.

No other cities will be visited by the royal party on this trip under present plans, the newspaper continues, and only one public function has been arranged, a dinner and dance by Clarence Mackay at Harbor Hill, September 6, the evening of the first of the series of polo matches for the international challenge cup, the American open championship and the Monty Waterbury Memorial cup.

The royal visitors will occupy the house of James A. Burden at Syoset, Long Island, during the polo matches, with Rogers Winthrop, acting as host in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Burden, who are in Europe.

After the matches, which are scheduled to end September 14, the prince is expected to leave immediately for his ranch in Manitoba.

TREASURE TOMB DISCOVERED

Ancient Greek Vault Gives up
Rare Antiques

STOCKHOLM — (By Associated Press) — The discovery of 250 gold ornaments that were ancient heirlooms even in the time of Homer, the opening of a Greek tomb that had not been disturbed for more than 3,000 years, and the discovery that the so-called saddle roof was not unknown in the architecture of that early day, are some of the important results, just reported here, of the Swedish Archaeological Expedition, headed by Crown Prince, Gustaf Adolf, which is excavating the ancient city of Alopece, Greece.

The latest discovery of the Swedish experts came somewhat as a surprise when, after having explored a tomb as big as a house and finding nothing of unusual interest, they turned to a tomb less than five feet wide. This proved to be a treasure trove, dating about 1150 B. C. in the Mycenaean, or pre-Hellenic period.

It contained numerous earthenware vases of rare design and decoration, eight beautiful bronze urns and other vessels, of which one was 20 inches high. One of the smaller bronze urns contained four necklaces of gold and jet-black glass beads, and curiously enough the strings were sufficiently well preserved to show the arrangement of the beads, so that the necklaces can now be restored to their exact appearance 3,000 years ago.

The necklaces contained 660 beads and other ornaments, of which 250 were of gold. BUILT LIKE HOUSE

The great tomb nearby, which contained few treasures, is nevertheless of great archaeological value, since it is built in the form of a house, and its top, hewn into the rock, is the exact shape of the familiar "saddle roof," with sloping sides and gables at both ends, thus proving that this architectural detail was known in Greece more than 1,000 years B. C.

The Swedish Expedition has been at work in the excavation of Alopece for more than two years and has already unearthed and classified more than 500,000 treasures and fragments of a value, some of which date back as far as 2,500 B. C. Yet the experts say that the work has only begun, and that still more important discoveries may be expected in the near future.

All the portable finds of the Crown Prince's expedition are being studied in the University of Lund, Sweden, to which they have been shipped by special permission of the Greek government. As soon as the examination has been completed by archaeological experts the finds will be returned to Greece.

UNDERGROUND CITY IN NEVADA IS EXPECTED TO BE DISCOVERED SOON

RENO, Nev. — Discovery of figuring in Aztec characters on the rock wall of a cavern in eastern Nevada, near the Lehman caves, National Reserve, was announced by Dr. B. F. Schappelle, University of Nevada archaeologist today. He described the find as one of the most important of its kind among western archaeological discoveries of recent times.

The tracings are said to be the farthest north Aztec markings discovered. Rock writings resembling Egyptian hieroglyphics also were noted by the expert.

Members of the exploration party expressed belief that further investigation would uncover an underground city among the caves and on the banks of an underground river. In a burial cave with a four by six foot opening at the surface, leading to a large underground room, five human skeletons were found. The bones were badly disintegrated.

Live angleworms were discovered 190 feet underground in the caves.

FAITH IN BOYS JUSTIFIED

Hundreds of Juveniles Cared for on Private Farm

MUKWONGA, Wis. — The problem of what shall be done with the wayward boy has been solved in part in Wisconsin by D. W. Norris, Milwaukee philanthropist, who for several years has absorbed some of the output of the juvenile courts of Milwaukee and placed it on a 752 acre farm near here.

At present there are 67 boys on the Mukwonga farm, varying in age from eight to 16 years. Nearly 75 per cent of these come from "broken" homes, those where parents are divorced or separated or where a death has occurred among parents. Not all of the boys are wayward or the product of the juvenile court, several being simply homeless lads.

Norris and his mother personally direct the operation of the farm, also they reside in their home in Milwaukee. A corps of assistants handles the details.

While all of the boys are given tasks that educate them in the care of "purebred" stock, in the raising of fine crops and the marketing of farm products, including milk, butter, cheese, fruit and vegetables, the general tone of the place is to carry out the idea of a real home, getting away entirely from the idea of a correctional institution, which the farm is not, in the sense of state supervision. It provides recreation, discipline, education, health, home and maintenance, everything to make a normal American boy. There are school facilities on the property.

Many of the boys come from the juvenile court and are under little or no restraint, their self-control run away from the farm. A number of them have been taken abroad on long trips by the Norris family.

ESTIMATES ARE ANNOUNCED

Metallist of Paving Plans Are in Tangible Form

FOUNDATION TO BE HEAVY

Brick, Asphalt and Concrete
Are Listed by Surveyor

Estimates for the cost of building a Metallist of paving from Vine-st. to Fourth-st., submitted to the county commissioners Monday, show the contemplated improvement will be one of the heaviest and most durable types of construction laid in Lima this year.

Figures were submitted by Ed Smith, county surveyor on brick, asphalt and reinforced concrete. The estimates do not include the cost of paving the L. E. & W. Viaduct and the approaches.

Costs of the various types are: Brick, $60.512.39; asphalt, $55.692.83. These two types, according to specifications are to be built on concrete base averaging eight to nine inches in depth.

The third type to be bid on is reinforced concrete, and the estimated cost is $51,284.49. Plans for the paving show extra reinforcement on the west side of the street where a large sewer was put in last year. Provision is also made for street car tracks in the street.

DATE NOT SET
County commissioners are not certain on what date they will take bids for the work.

Bonds must be sold by the county, A. J. Gray declared, to finance the project. The county is paying for 18 feet in the center of the street and the city and Solar refinery are to pay for constructing a nine foot strip, each side of the county's portion.

Officials of the Solar refinery in joining in the cost of the improvement insisted on a heavy concrete base being built. Beside participating in the cost of the pavement, the concern has agreed to build a sidewalk on the west side of the street.

The street when completed will be the gateway of the Dixie highway from the south. It will carry an estimated vehicle traffic of from 2,500 to 3,000 vehicles daily. County commissioners hope to see the improvement started not later than Sept. 1.

The approaches of the viaduct will not be paved this year. Commissioner Gray said. The slopes will be allowed to settle and will be hillside brick. Cost of paving the viaduct, which is now practically completed, and the approaches is included in the cost of the structure, according to Gray.

BLAST KILLS THREE

EARLY RETURNS PREDICTED

Efforts to Be Made to Get
Vote Tabulated Quickly

BALLOTING TO BE HEAVY

Predictions of Strength Are
Made by Leaders

Stetwide results of the primary election in Ohio Tuesday are to be made known in rapid fire order. If the instructions of Thad H. Brown, secretary of state, are carried out by election boards.

Secretary Brown, Monday issued orders from Columbus that all election boards serving in the primary must stay in continuous session until a complete unofficial report has been made of the vote in each precinct.

Instructions to this effect reached the Allen county board Monday and will be followed by the letter Joseph M. Madigan, chairman, declared.

Madigan communicated Secretary Brown's mandate to the boards in each of the 115 precincts in the county. His orders were that no delays will be tolerated. Failure to carry out Brown's orders and those of the local board will be dealt with under the provisions of the new election law enacted by the last legislature, Madigan declared.

EARLY REPORTS

As soon as the polls are closed counting of the vote for state officers must start. The state and district vote must be counted before the vote for county officers and reported immediately.

"When 10 precincts are reported, their combined vote will be telephoned to Columbus.

Arrangements for handling the returns at Columbus were completed Monday. It was announced, when a battery of five telephone trunk lines were installed.

Polls in Allen county will open at 5:30 a. m. and close at 5:30 p. m. central standard time. Officials using daylight savings time the polls will open one hour later, eastern time.

Approximately 6,000 Democratic voters are expected to go to the polls Tuesday. Madigan said, and the Republican vote in the county is estimated at not less than 6,000 votes.

Two years ago, with a bitter gubernatorial battle being waged in the Democratic camp and a hot county and district campaign, 6,470 Democrats in the county voted.

Less interest was manifested in the G. O. P. battle, and only 3,403 voters visited the polls.

MORE INTEREST

This year the Republican organization in the county are working tooth and nail to roll up a record vote for John L. Cable, for governor. They hope to get about 6 per cent of his total expected vote in the state in Allen county.

For this reason it is conservatively estimated that from 1,500 to 2,000 more Republicans will vote in the primary than was the case two years ago.

Rival gubernatorial candidates are expected to gather from 1,000 to 1,500 votes in the county. Cable running unopposed for Congress at the primary in 1922, garnered 10,978 votes in the Fourth district. His vote in the district this year may exceed 12,000, while from 4,000 to 5,000 votes are conceded to other G. O. P. runners.

Ohio's Republican primary vote in 1922 was 464,539. This year, political seers predict more than a half million votes will be cast.

Rain Monday will keep hundreds of farmers out of the field Tuesday, and result in a normal rural vote.

The condition will help some candidates chances and spoil defeat for others. The usual eleventh hour wavering and shifts from one candidate to another, were in evidence Monday, among the voting element.

Back to the indicated winner, and then flop back just as quick.

Dr. William C. Krohn, who interviewed the players immediately after their confession, and Dr. Harold D. Singer.

Dr. Krohn is scheduled to be the first rebuttal witness called by the state's attorney. He is expected to testify that Leopold and Loeb are sane, that they are free from any mitigating psychoses.

A report by Dr. James Whitely Hall, neuro-psychiatrist for the defense, made public yesterday, describes the players as "psychopathic inferiors."

The report is thought to be an answer to Clarence S. Darrow's defense built on teddy bears, baby phonies, a loquacious—but not least—responsibility.

In Dr. Hall declared that in a few years if the boys live, they will become completely irresponsible.

Dr. Hulbert said Leopold's intolerance to sugar indicated the pituitary gland does not function normally. He said that none of the tests of Leopold and Loeb were made by him alone, nor by one man. Crowe was so insistent that Judge Crowe, kindly reviewed the prosecutor for urging after Dr. Hulbert grew red-faced and insisted he could not detail the names of all assistants, although the tests were made under his personal supervision.

"If these boys wanted to cheat you on these tests couldn't they have done so?" asked Crowe.

"No, I am brighter than they are," replied Dr. Hulbert.

"Do you mean intellectually or mentally?" asked Crowe.

"Both," replied the specialist. Leopold and Loeb grinned.

"Is a matter of fact you relied on others whose names you do not know to tell the results of these tests?" asked Crowe.

The witness said he had supervised the tests.

Crowe tried to bring out that the placing of a finger on a wet X-ray plate might indicate a condition not present in the individual photographed.

"How did you estimate the emotional age of Leopold?" asked the state's attorney. Dr. Hulbert said Leopold's emotional age was less than the average boy of 12 was arrived at because of his fear of physical pain, because his emotions of awe and reverence were shallow and not matured, had no love affairs with any appreciative degree of emotional feeling and his attitude towards his family. "Lack of awe and reverence is true of all atheists isn't it?" asked Crowe.

"If there is no belief in God and the hereafter you don't expect them to show awe and reverence, wouldn't you expect ridicule?"

"Ridicule is childish," replied the witness.

MESSAGE IS READ TO LIMA ROTARY MEMBERS

Speech in the August issue of the Rotarian, official magazine of Rotary International, written by former international president Frank Mulholland, Toledo, was read to the Lima Rotary club at its meeting Monday noon at Normal hotel by Harry C. Sterling, a member of the local club.

Mulholland believes that too many Rotary clubs are attempting to do too much and not giving any one thing as much attention as it should receive. Object of Rotary is civic service, and as long as a club is taking care of one thing properly that is all it should do, Mulholland thinks.

Gordon Thomas, of Vancouver, who has been in New York City studying music under Herbert Witherspoon, sang several selections for the club. He was accompanied by Miss Geraldine Evans. Thomas is a tenor.

PRINCE TO VISIT WHITE HOUSE

Strictly Private Luncheon to
be Held for Wales

ONE OF HIGHEST HONORS

Heir to British Throne Will
Reach U. S. Aug. 30

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — One of the highest compliments in diplomatic usage—a strictly private luncheon with the executive family—is planned for the Prince of Wales upon his arrival in the United States, for the international polo matches next month at Meadowbrook, says the Washington Post today, adding that it understands the royal visitor will reach New York August 30, on the Berengaria.

The prince's call at the White House was decided upon, the Post relates, after King George had vetoed a proposal that he come to the United States in recognition as Lord Rentfrew. The king held that international courtesy required use of the prince's title on a visit to the United States, even though it might be a pleasure trip and this necessitated arrangements for him to pay his respects formally to the president.

The pflavry of the luncheon, one of a few functions of its kind in American history, is attributed not only to the mourning of the executive family for alvin Coolidge Jr., but to a desire to retain similar courtesies extended by the king and queen recently to Secretary Mellon and his daughter. Afterwards, says the Post, members of the cabinet and their wives may be invited to the White House to welcome the prince informally.

Other cities will be visited by the royal party on this trip under present plans, the newspaper continues, and only one large social function has been arranged, a dinner and dance by Clarence Mackay at Harbor Hill, September 6, the evening of the first of the series of polo matches for the international challenge cup, the American open championship and the Monty Waterbury Memorial cup.

The royal visitors will occupy the house of James A. Burden at Syoset, Long Island, during the polo matches, with Rogers Winthrop, acting as host in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Burden, who are in Europe.

After the matches, which are scheduled to end September 14, the prince is expected to leave immediately for his ranch in Manitoba.

Seven-day program of the Redpath Chautauqua was scheduled to begin Monday afternoon with a concert by DiGorgio's orchestra. The tent is located on the north side of W. Elm-st. opposite the new school house now being constructed on the Baxter grounds formerly used by the chautauqua.

Advance ticket sale indicates a banner chautauqua year for Lima. L. E. Ludwig, of the local chautauqua committee, said Monday. A number of the guarantors have not reported their sales as yet but it is thought most of them have disposed of their tickets.

Monday night DiGorgio's orchestra will give a short musical program followed by a lecture, "Jack and the Beanstalk," by Judge George D. Alden, of Massachusetts, a descendant of the Mayflower Pilgrims and a second cousin of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, famous poet.

William E. Wenner, state senator, is scheduled to give a lecture, "The Hand at the Nation's Throat," Tuesday morning, and in the afternoon he will talk on "A Square Deal for the Boy."

THE TANGLE

An Intimate Story of Love and Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT TO SYDNEY CARTON

You should marry, my dear Syd. There's nothing like marriage to change a man's point of view. I don't know just why it is, but when a man is courting a girl, she looks entirely different to him than she does after he marries her. You being single, all girls are beautiful to you. I'd like to see a married to someone like Mrs. Atherton here. She's a good one, you understand that the war between the sexes is not a myth. It's still on, and a man has to fight for every bit of independence he will have and every bit of respect that he will get from his wife, her friends or her relatives.

I told Leslie that she must give that damned necklace back to Karl Whitney. She's going to do it or we're going to be a divided household. If Leslie's father weren't so ill, I'd put the whole matter up to him. He'd certainly understand the whole business.

No rubbing-no bluing when you use La France for the family wash

It may look like a mountainous wash, but you will be amazed and delighted at the ease with which it is done when you dissolve La France with the soap. No rubbing-no bluing. La France blues as it cleans.

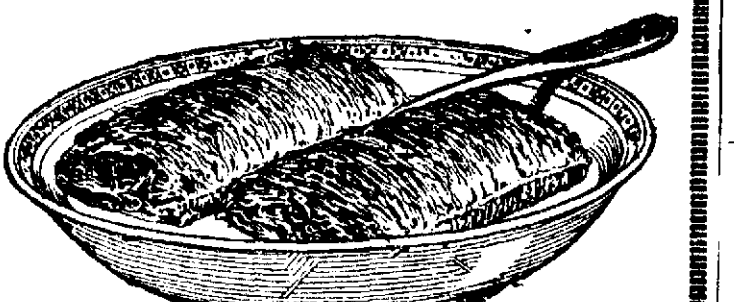

You just soak or boil the clothes, then rinse and wring, and the dreaded task is over. Your clothes are whiter, sweeter, cleaner than ever before because La France works like magic on dirt. It loosens every clinging particle of soil so it can be easily rinsed away.

You don't have to change your method of washing to use La France. Wash as you always have—just add La France. Use it with any soap you like—bar, powder or flakes. And use it in the washing machine. Costs but 10 cents a package. Order from your grocer to-day.

For ironing, use Satina. Added to the hot starch, it keeps your iron from sticking, and gives a glossy, satiny finish. Is nicely perfumed. La France Manufacturing Company, Philadelphia.

Both, Angola, left fielder, made three of his team's eight hits. One was a home run and the others doubles. All of his hits resulted in scores.

It was Bryan's fourth defeat in the last seven games. The former farm-players have been weakened seriously by the loss of "Lefty Kime, southpaw pitcher, who turned in three victories for the locals earlier in the season but who left for a try-out with the Tanks.

On one occasion, Garlitta, third baseman, heaved the sphere low to home and was awarded free play and the runner scored.

Wapakoneta tried out a new infield combination. Dickey, formerly at second was sent to short and "Joe" Trich, who plays with the Crane in the Lima Industrial league went to second. Each fielded in faultless style.

It was Ulrich's first game with Wapakoneta and he celebrated by hitting out a single, double and triple in three official times at bat. The fourth time he walked. Score by innings

BEHIND HERE TODAY

The "Nervous Wreck" is a story of a young easterner who drives Sally Morgan, daughter of a Montana ranch owner, over a road which is a trail from the city to the railroad.

NO GO ON WITH THE STORY

Probably she dreamed that she was never quite sure of it because it began as a dream, ended as something that really happened. There was a rhythm, a throbbing in her ears, and as she came slowly and reluctantly to consciousness it grew steadily louder. There was a mechanical regularity about it that reminded her of the windmill at the farm, but she realized at an instant later that it was not a windmill, either. It was more like an engine, more orderly and dignified—wealthier.

She leaned forward and pushed aside a corner of the curtain. The thing that made the noise had just come to a stop outside Sally's door. It was with round eyes that she stared at her in plain surprise; he did not know she could run so fast.

"What's the hurry?" he asked suddenly.

"We're trailed!"

"Trailed? What do you mean?"

"Have they seen you?" she panted.

"Who? What are you talking about? I haven't seen anybody but some horses down in the corral."

"Well, we're trailed all right, Henry Williams. They're out in the front now!"

"Who's out in front?"

"The people you stuck up—the big car!"

The Wreck lifted his eyebrows, looked thoughtful for an instant, then began squaring his shoulders.

"Oh, all right," he said. "We'll stick 'em up again."

Sally groaned.

"We've got to get out of here, she said, sharply. 'We've got to make a getaway. We'll get a couple of horses down at the corral before they see us. You'll just have to ride.'"

It was a despairing thing to contemplate the Wreck on horseback, but it seemed the only chance.

"Oh, I can ride," he said. "I can ride anything. Only it's easier to stick 'em up. We'll take their car!"

Sally shook her head angrily.

"No, you idiot!" she cried. "We'll take horses. If we get a chance at them, we'll take them."

She had seized him by the hand and was dragging him in the direction of the door when he walked. Sally stopped and eyed him appraisingly. If the Wreck insisted on whipping him, this seemed to be the chosen time. And if it was necessary, she would help.

"I was just looking for you," said Charlie, addressing the Wreck. "I want a hand with some baggage outside."

"Huh?" inquired the Wreck. "Baggage?" repeated Charlie. "The box is here."

Sally and the Wreck exchanged a slow glance. Then she pinched his fingers tightly, and he knew it was meant to be some sort of a signal.

"Where are your men?" Can't they handle baggage?" she demanded.

The boys ain't here, man. I'm asking him, with a nod toward the Wreck.

"My husband doesn't," said Sally.

"He's not here, man. I'm asking him," with a nod toward the Wreck.

"He's not here, man. I'm asking him," with a nod toward the Wreck.

The Wreck began to squirm and look uneasy.

"I admit he ain't exactly powerful looking, man. But a while back he said he was going to lick me, so I thought maybe he could rattle a couple of trunks without sustaining any personal damage."

"No, you'll have to get somebody else," said Sally.

Charlie made no effort to conceal the disgust in his soul. He inspected the Wreck from his horn-rimmed spectacles to his shoes, following the examination with a gesture of contempt.

and the chauffeur "I managed to maintain any self-control, but he blamed it all on Sally. All he did was to shout, 'You think I'm a baggage-smasher, you just wait and see what happens to your dishes.'"

Charlie went out with a remark to the effect that he did not have to pay for "his" "The Wreck and Sally stared at each other.

Not on stock up the owner of the place. He had taken a whole lot of care in order to keep them on the track. Forced to look at the incident, Sally takes a deep breath.

"Well, what do we do now?" she asked.

"No, I think we'd better wait," he said. "I don't believe it's quite as bad as I thought. You see, they didn't trail us here, after all. They were coming anyhow. Probably they don't know we're here."

"I'm, I'll have to ask you to hustle dinner. They're real hungry."

"They'll have dinner just as soon as I can get it," said Sally, promptly.

The Wreck regarded her with a look of amazed disappointment. Was she going to turn to and cook for a hot? It was enough to be drafted as cook for an unknown, but to do chores for your enemy was humiliation. He was about to speak when she stopped him with a look.

"Seems the didn't get a regular breakfast, except crackers, which they had with 'em," explained Charlie. "That leaves 'em kind of hungry. They got hung upon the road. In fact, they got held up."

"You don't mean it?" exclaimed Sally, who was digging into the direction of making biscuits.

"Oh, it don't seem like it was serious, man. That is, there wasn't anybody got shot. Feller just took watches and valuables and left 'em flat without any gas."

Sally ventured a look at the Wreck. He seemed to be curiously elated.

"It's been done before," said Charlie, who was slightly bored. "It ain't anything to what they used to do. Only the boss is pretty well stirred up, which maybe is natural enough. He comes from the east, where they don't know anything about such things."

The Wreck was standing near a window, polishing his spectacles. It was a first conscious glimpse of him without the horn rims. He gave her a swift impression of being another person. But there was no time to study him. Charlie was too interesting.

"Who is the boss?" she asked, trying to be indifferent.

"His name is Underwood," said Charlie. "He's from New York. It's funny the way those New Yorkers buy themselves places that take such a pile of traveling to get to. And he don't come here often, once a year. This time he drove all the way. It don't sound reasonable, but he did. He's got his box and suit with him. I expect he'll stay a few weeks."

Charlie came into the kitchen again.

"We got that baggage in thanks to nobody that washes dishes," he said. "And now, we'll have to wash 'em."

"The thing to do, of course, is to keep them from seeing you," she said. "You'll have to stay in the kitchen all the time. I'm afraid I don't suppose they'll come in here."

"They're not going to creep me up in a kitchen, he growled. "Besides, it was dark last night anyhow. They didn't get a good look at me. I had my cap pulled down."

THE TANGLE

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PREWITT TO SYDNEY CARTON

You should marry, my dear Syd. There's nothing like marriage to change a man's point of view. I don't know just why it is, but when a man is courting a girl, she looks entirely different to him than she does after he marries her.

You being single, all girls are beautiful to you. I'd like to see you married to someone like Mrs. Atherton here. She'd soon make you understand that the war between the sexes is not a myth. It's still on, and a man has to fight for every bit of independence he will have and every bit of respect that he will get from his wife, her friends or her relatives.

I told Leslie that she must give that damned black back to Karl Whitney. She's going to do it or we're going to be a divided household. If I, as a father weren't so ill, I'd put the whole matter up to him. He'd certainly understand that damned black back to Karl Whitney.

I don't know why I shouldn't make one of the wedding party and escort Miss Prewitt when my wife was out of town. With the exception of Miss Prewitt all the participants were my wife's friends. In fact, we were about to have the wedding when my wife had been called to her father's.

It's an old feud between us, so far I have not telegraphed or written her, and she has not replied as far as I am concerned. Of course, my mother is here, and she is becoming very curious to know why my wife hasn't written me. I have told her she is probably too busy with her father. She got me to send Leslie a night letter for her last night. I was only too glad to do this, signing mother's name, for I don't mind confessing to you that I do like Mr. Hamilton very much, and I don't want to appear to have no interest in his illness whatever.

Syd, I never was so lonely in my life. I went down to the club last night, and found it filled with a lot of callow youths that I never had seen before. By and by Ernest Treadwell came in, and I asked him about this or that one of our mutual friends and found they were all either married or going to be very soon.

I didn't have time to make any arrangements with Paula about the child. It does seem as though we oughtn't to stand in the way of his boy getting some of his mother's salary, and yet I am sure Leslie wouldn't hear a word of it.

I wonder if I told you that Mrs. Atherton saw that anonymous letter that I received. She wrote on the bottom of it that she thought anonymous letters were damnable. She wanted to blame for opening it, as she has instructions to open everything of mine that isn't marked "personal."

Since the anonymous letter episode and the wedding, she has hardly spoken to me. I wonder if she's a little jealous because I spent the evening with Paula. Women are strange creatures, you know, and Sally Atherton is just the woman to be jealous both for herself and for Leslie.

IMPORTANT NOTES ON CANNING

TESTED jar rubbers! Think what that means—no more bulging rubbers, no blowing out, no drying up. In place of the old uncertainty and anxiety, you have security against loss!

Cook hard fruits, such as hard pears, under-ripe peaches, pineapples, sweet apples, quinces, watermelon-rind or citron, in a small amount of water, or steam them until tender before placing them in a heavy jar. If these fruits are not treated in this way, the preserve will be hard and tough instead of plump and tender.

Stretch and "set" are the two things a jar rubber must do if you are to have an airtight seal. It must stretch just enough to slip easily over the neck of the jar. If it has too much stretch it will not snap back to its original size. Once in place it must "set," grip firmly the neck of the jar and make an air-tight seal for your pack.

Pack the fruit firmly in clean, tested jars to within one-half inch of the top. Pack pitted, stoned or cored fruits with the cavities toward the center of the jar. Fill the jar with boiling syrup or hot water. From The New Butterick Cook Book.

Before they leave the factory "U.S." Jar Rubbers are tested for all those qualities which enable them to meet every demand of modern canning.

Cherries that are not desirable for canning may make good juice for use as a beverage or in pudding, sauce and gelatin desserts. From the Cornell Reading Course, Cornell University.

COSTELLO'S TWO-BAGGER DECIDES INTERESTING CONTEST

California Girl Starts Defense Of Her Title --- Indians Set Yanks Back In Second Place

LOCALS HAVE HARD TIME WINNING GAME

It was a typical game of ball played between Paulding and Lima at Murphy-st grounds Sunday. The spectacular sort that makes men and women sit up in expectancy, and hoping that the batter either won't hit or he will, and thankful if he makes it three bases or a home run. Technically it was a well played game, a pitcher's battle if you like, intermittent with snappy playing interspersed with sensational plays. Poorman played the center garden as the most ardent fan would like to have seen any of the celebrated players. It was his remarkable catches that were instrumental in retarding the contest.

Paulding had a good ball team and it is not hard to understand how they got the winning side with Bryan and Angola. Stohl, Poorman and Swartz make a fast field and probably this was the day, was Allen, but where he falls in the field he makes up with the stick, for he is one of the heaviest hitters in the league. There should be a capacity crowd present on their next visit, for a remark made by a spectator that never makes a game to the effect that "it's worth the money" is expressive of the purpose and satisfaction every person present agreed to.

STAY AT HIS BEST
And Dave Westhay, let it be said was not an inch behind when summing up is finished. He is a game that from every angle was the best seen on the lot this season, and that's high credit. It was not his

That Good Cigar

Lima made eight errors, two of which directly resulted in scores. Dave Westhay been given perfect support, he would have scored a shut-out. He struck out 12 men.

Angola Trounces Bryan
BRYAN (Special) — In a game lasting more than three hours, Angola sent Bryan to third place in the Ohio-Indiana league here Sunday. 9 to 1. Angola went to second place by the victory.

Angola scored seven of its runs in the last four innings by hitting and taking advantage of the errors, which numbered seven. Angola counted the tying and winning runs in the last inning.

Ruth, Angola, left fielder, made three of his team's eight hits. One was a home run, the others were doubles. All of his hits resulted in scores.

It was Bryan's fourth defeat in the last seven games. The former first-placers have been weakened seriously by the loss of "Lefty" Kime, outfielder, who turned in three victories for the locals earlier in the season but who left for a try-out with the Yanks.

Score by innings:
Angola..... 300 002 212-9 8 2
Bryan..... 000 000 010-0 0 0 0
Batteries: Standish, Katz and Leibold; Witmer, Gilbert and Rumm.

New Bremen Wins
DELPHOS (Special) — New Bremen won over the phone here Sunday, 4 to 1, in a well-played Ohio-Indiana league game. Neither team made an error and the fielding was unusually brilliant.

W. Huenke, New Bremen, had the better of a pitcher's duel with Tilton Delphos Zilinger. Huenke pitched in the absence of Jones, who twirled in a Dayton semi-pro game Saturday.

Score by innings:
New Bremen..... 002 000 000-4 8 0
Delphos..... 000 000 010-0 0 0 0
Batteries: Huenke and Blanke; Tilton and Liable.

Celina Gets Game
CELAIN (Special) — Wildness on the part of Bill Main, Wapakoneta pitcher, gave Celina a 6 to 5 victory over the Wapakoneta here Sunday.

Main permitted but three hits, but walked a number of men. In the seventh he passed the first three men to face him, two of whom later scored. Wapak's three errors also resulted in Celina's victory. On one occasion, third baseman, heading the sphere low to home on an attempted force play and the runner scored.

Wapakoneta tried out a new infield combination. Dickey, formerly second, was sent to short and "Joe" Trich, who plays with the Crane Co. in the Lima Industrial league, was moved to second. Each fielded in faultless style.

It was Trich's first game with Wapakoneta and he celebrated by hitting out a single, double and triple in three official times at bat. The fourth time he walked. Score by innings:
Wapakoneta..... 000 010 010-5 10 3
Celina..... 003 000 212-6 2 2
Batteries: Main and Hay; Herman and McComb.

SOME OF GAME'S GREATEST PITCHERS HAVE ONLY FAIR STUFF

BY BILLY EVANS
In baseball, the term "smart pitcher" is applied to the twirler who uses his head as well as his arm.

A smart pitcher does not necessarily have the most ability. In a great many cases it is lack of stuff that causes him to resort to strategy.

Pitchers with much natural ability usually depend entirely on their stuff to get them by. Often such pitchers do not resort to headwork until the arm starts to give way under the strain.

Walter Johnson and Grover Cleveland Alexander, two of the greatest pitchers of all time, frankly confess they never gave much thought to brain stuff until they first suffered a lame arm.

Of the present-day crop of pitchers in the major leagues, Urban Shocker of the St. Louis Browns is generally conceded to be the craftiest.

Here is the all-star "gray matter" pitching staff of the American League:

St. Louis Browns — Urban Shocker.
Chicago White Sox — Hollis Thurston.
Cleveland Indians — Sherry Spill.
Washington Nationals — George Mogridge.

New York Yankees — Herb Pennock.
Philadelphia Athletics — Ed Rommel.
Detroit Tigers — George Daines.
Boston Red Sox — Howard Ehmke.

While every successful major league pitcher must use his head as well as his arm, these eight pitchers stand out.

Walter Johnson, perhaps the greatest pitcher of all time, now goes in strongly for the smart stuff. Once upon a time Walter simply threw the ball by the batter. He worked on the theory that you couldn't hit what you couldn't see.

Today Walter Johnson is rated one of the wisest pitchers in the game. When his arm wavered he called on his brain for reserve power.

In selecting these eight smart pitchers, natural ability has been put in the background to a certain extent. There are any number of right-handers in the American League who have more stuff than Hollis Thurston and plenty of left-handers with more natural ability than George Mogridge.

"The wise pitcher of today is the fellow who uses his head no matter how much stuff he has," says the great Walter Johnson.

HELEN WILLS IS HOME AFTER OLYMPIC GAMES

By HENRY L. FARRELL.
FOREST HILLS, N. Y.—(United Press.)—Back on her home turf after her Olympic victory at Paris, Miss Helen Wills, the 18-year-old California girl, starts the defense of her American championship in the 39th annual championship tournament here this Monday afternoon.

After her decisive victory over Mrs. Molla Mallory in the national championships last summer and her easy triumph over the former champion at the Olympic games, it might seem that the Berkeley girl has little to do to retain her championship.

The field against her, however, while it lacks the international color of last year's tournament, is a strong one and if the young champion has had too much hard early season tennis, she may be pressed to repeat her 1923 victory.

Miss Wills rules the favorite in the dope, but Mrs. Mallory, the six-time champion, and Miss Mary K. Browne, California, the champion of 1912, 1913, and 1914 are being given much consideration.

The poor showing made by Mrs. Mallory during the tournament in England and France caused some critics to believe that her game finally had cracked and she had passed the stage of a dandified contender. She has been playing well, however, since she returned from France and she has such a stout heart that she will be dangerous even after her game slips.

Miss Browne gave up tennis several years ago and took up golf, at which she became almost as skilled as she had been in tennis on the courts. Her attempted comeback will be one of the most interesting features of the tournament.

Mrs. Marion Zinderstein Jessup, another former champion, is also in the field and there are other formidable players who have never reached the championship rating, including Miss Eleanor Goss, Miss Martha Ballard, Mrs. Ceres Baker Sackett, Miss Mayme MacDonald and Miss Edith Sigourney.

Miss Wills is to make her first appearance against Mrs. L. C. Beaubien, the good Canadian player, and it should be the best match of the day.

Other feature matches scheduled for the center court are between Mrs. Mallory and Miss Caroma Wint; Miss Browne against Mrs. S. H. Warner; Miss Goss against Miss Marguerite Ginn, and Mrs. Jessup against Mrs. Bronson Batchelor.

Miss Wills and Mrs. George W. Wightman, the Olympic doubles champions rule the field in the entries for the national doubles titles.

"Nothing is certain in this country but death and taxes and the Glatts," says Mr. J. J. McGraw.

"Get the men out of the sand traps by Christmas," says any golf widow.

Tigers Claw Way Into Lead

NEW YORK — Inspired by their grey-bearded manager, Ty Cobb, who favored his diamond-weary legs to the extent of stealing only four bases, the Detroit Tigers burgled first place right out of the hands of the Yankees whom they lead Monday by one point.

Washington and St. Louis, both of whom won, also propped by the world champion's downfall, advanced to within two and four games respectively, of the erstwhile peacemakers.

Old timers wept for joy as they watched Cobb do the stuff that made him baseball's premier speed demon of all time, in the Detroit-Boston slaughter. The Tigers wielded the butcher knife for a 13 to 7 triumph. Ty celebrated his second childhood with piffers of second, third twice and home. His cohorts' terrific slugging did the rest.

By their 7 to 1 victory the Indians not only tumbled the Yankees out of first place but passed Chicago into fifth place as the White Sox lost to Washington.

Altho they did their best to surrender the game on errors, the St. Louis Browns gracefully accepted a 10 to 8 victory at the urgent insistence of the Athletics. The Philadelphia pitchers outdid the St. Louis fielders in the matter of wildness.

WATCHING THE SCORE BOARD

YESTERDAY'S HERO—Dave Vance, star Brooklyn pitcher, won his 15th game and struck out nine, beating the Cards 5 to 4 in the second game of a double-header. Brooklyn won the first 6 to 5 in 10 innings.

Lefty Morridge came out of a losing streak of seven straight games and pitched the Senators to a 6 to 2 victory over the White Sox.

Edith Ruth failed to get a hit for the first time in 13 games and the Tanks lost to the Indians 7 to 1, dropping into second place.

To Cobb stole second once, third twice and home once and helped the Tigers regain the league lead with a 13 to 7 victory over the Red Sox.

Rixey and Donohue stopped the artillery of the Glatts and the Reds won a double bill, 4 to 2 and 5 to 1.

The Browns made five errors behind two pitchers, but sat the Athletics back 10 to 2.

May Be New Golf Champ Today

CHICAGO — To be both national and western golf champion was the ambition that inspired Edith Cummings of Chicago, as she started on the 36 hole finals of the Western championship with no less an opponent than William Burns of Kansas City who is defending the crown as holder of the western title and who has displayed better golf at times than Miss Cummings.

On the other hand Miss Cummings in addition to a longer experience, is a member of Onwentsia where the match is played and knows the course thoroughly.

Dempsey To Meet Firpo Or Willis

NEW YORK — (By United Press) — Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, will be ready to defend his title against the winner of the Firpo-Willis fight, if Tex Rickard wants to stage the fight in October, according to a message received from Jack Kearns, his manager.

Kearns wired from Los Angeles that Dempsey would rather wait until next spring to meet the winner, but that he was giving up the movies and would be ready to work this fall if the arrangements can be made.

The manager of the champion mentioned a big offer that had been received from a London syndicate for a match between Dempsey of Tom Gibbons and he said it was so large that he would consider it.
